Click on Research tools

Then click on Library databases

Under Education and Academic you will find:

Academic Search Elite - Provides full text for nearly 3,500 scholarly publications in all major areas of research, including full text for nearly 2,600 peer-reviewed journals. Coverage offers information dating back to 1975.

ERIC - The Educational Resource Information Center (ERIC), a U.S. Government clearinghouse for information on education, contains more than 2,200 digests along with references for additional information and citations and abstracts from over 980 educational and education-related journals.

Professional Development Collection - Designed for professional educators. Provides a highly specialized collection of over 515 full text journals, including nearly 350 peer-reviewed titles. Most comprehensive collection of full text education journals in the world.

UNDER KIDS & STUDENTS

Kids Search - Kids Search makes it easy for students to search by keyword or by topic to find the most useful search results. The resources available via the database include a dictionary, an encyclopedia, downloadable images, and teacher resources.

Middle Search Plus - Provides full text for nearly 150 popular magazines for middle and jr. high school research. All full text articles included in the database are assigned a reading level indicator (Lexiles). Full text information dates as far back as 1990.

Searchasaurus - Searchasaurus was created as a kid-friendly search interface to two databases -- Middle Search and Primary Search. Middle Search is a resource for the Middle School student and Primary Search is targeted for students in the primary grades. Together they provide information from 186 journals. with full text coverage for 155 titles. The database also contains some pamphlet material, 76,000 primary source documents, a general encyclopedia, an encyclopedia of animals, and a large image collection. Coverage for some resources goes back to 1984; coverage for full-text entries goes back to 1989.

Student Research Center - EBSCO's Student Research Center makes it easy for students to search by keyword or by topic to find information on a wide range of subjects. Information is drawn from a wide variety of sources: magazines, books, newspapers, photos, maps, and more. The database also includes an online dictionary and teacher resources.

Primary Search - Provides full text for more than 50 popular magazines for elementary school research. All full text articles included are assigned a reading level indicator (Lexiles), and full text information dates back to 1990. Updated daily.

UNDER NEWSPAPERS:

Newspaper Source - Provides selected full text for over 200 regional U.S. newspapers, international newspapers, newswires, newspaper columns and other sources as well as indexing and abstracts for national newspapers. Updated daily.

ProQuest - Search the full collection of journals, magazines and newspapers for information on a broad range of general reference subjects. Sources include both newspapers and magazines.
